Thanks for handling this – I agree, even though it's after the fact.

I over-estimated my capacity. I need another week to respond and in the interim Henry is meeting and discussing matters with the Forestry Commission. Can we push to April 16th? Thank you!

Thank you. I note that your letter includes a 14 days response deadline. Unfortunately, I am not going to be able to turn my attention to these matters within the next two weeks based on other work load and scheduling issues. I don't understand the urgency to respond since it has been more than a year since the site visit, but I should be able to reply by the week following Easter (April 4). Please confirm by reply email that a response deadline of Friday, April 9, 2021 is acceptable.
